Recognizing Conscience in Abortion Provision

Abortion & Conscience. We are called to conform ourselves to the moral law and so form our consciences that this conformity is understood, properly, as a genuine liberation, a freeing of one's capacity to choose so that we choose the good. In short, our exercise of conscience is not just a legal claim of immunity,...

Abortion & Conscience | National Catholic Reporter

A good Christian looks at all the issues. Since there is no perfect candidate, one has to weigh the good and the bad and vote for the lesser bad. To base a vote on one issue alone (such as abortion) is rash and irresponsible. I voted for Bush in 2000 because of the abortion issue. Looking back, that was a mistake.

Taking Every Thought Captive: What the Bible Says about a Good Conscience. Every man is born with a conscience. It is a gift of God to mankind. However, man can quench his conscience by continually ignoring its voice over a period of time. The result is that his heart becomes hardened and seared so that it no longer speaks to him.

What the Bible Says about Keeping a Good Conscience

5 On the other hand, many imperfect humans have listened to their conscience. Job was a good example. Because he made good decisions, he could say: "My heart will not condemn me as long as I live." When Job spoke of his "heart," he referred to his conscience, his sense of right and wrong. David, though, ignored his conscience at times ...
